

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Experimental Road Under Way.

A visit to the scene of operations on the experimental wagon road yesterday revealed that the men under the direction of Road Expert J. H. Dodge have already begun to lay the road, of which there is now possibly 150 feet waiting for the final coating. In addition to this the roadbed has been graded nearly a mile preparatory to receiving the covering of crushed rock which is to complete the thoroughfare. In all about 25 men and about as many horses are employed on the operations.

The difficulty of using round rock from the creek bed is that there is a large proportion of small pebbles which pass through the crusher without being split, and the perfectly smooth and comparatively round surfaces of these renders it difficult to make them bind solidly. The result is that the smaller stones keep working under the larger ones and throwing them on top.—Walla Walla Union.

Gophers Destroy Alfalfa.

Much complaint is being made by some of the ranchers east of Baker City and a few west of here that the alfalfa fields are being despoiled by colonies of gophers. A Frenchman, who has had experience in Europe with this rodent, explains that it is easy to get rid of them by putting a few lumps of carbide in their holes and flooding the field with water. The gases generated kill the rodents quickly and without danger of poison to other animals. About a dollar's worth of the chemical will take care of an entire field, and a few pails of water, poured into the holes after dropping in the chemical will do the business, although the natural rains will take care of it without further trouble. The remedy is simple and one that is worth knowing, as the pests are increasing in this vicinity.—Baker City Democrat.

Runaways Would Be Jockies.

Lured by the glamour of a race-track life, three north side youngsters left home Saturday morning, and they are somewhere on the road to California, the land of promise toward which they are heading.

The boys are George Puckett, 12 years old, son of J. Puckett, of 407 Effie avenue; Willie Neill, 12 years old, son of Robert Neill, a mining man of 1226 Cora avenue, and Earl Elliott, 15 years old, living on Nettie avenue. All go to the Emerson school.

They became infatuated with racing during the interstate fair, when they took part in the boys' pony race. Since then the height of their ambition has been to be a "jock." They told the youngsters of the neighborhood that they had offers from a race horse man to ride for him. It is presumed they are trying to overtake the fellow.—Spokesman-Review.

Heavy Wheat Shipments.

Frank Farnsworth, manager of the Woolgrowers' warehouse, estimates that there will be shipped out and milled in the Heppner flouring mill this season 255,000 bushels of wheat. This exceeds the shipments of any previous year more than 100,000 bushels. A considerable portion of the increase is due to larger acreage than in former years, yet almost as great a per cent is due to the exceptionally large yield this season.—Heppner Times.

MURDERED BABIES

GERMAN "BABY FARMER"

GUILTY ON MANY COUNTS

"Adopted" the Illegitimate Children of the Poor and Obscure and Also of the Titled and Rich—Was a Blackmailer and Murderer on a Wholesale Scale—Husband and Daughter Testified Against Her.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—The Hamburg baby farmer, Elizabeth Wiese, has been found guilty of the murder of five infants and a long series of other crimes. In accordance with German law, she has been sentenced five times to death, once for each murder. For perjury and forgery she was sentenced to six years' penal servitude. Another curious pendant to her sentence was the loss of honor for the remainder of her natural life. The details of the trial were revolting in the extreme, proving the woman to be a monster of iniquity.

The story of her career is one of the most revolting in the criminal annals of the empire. It appeared from the evidence given at the trial that she was born in Hanover in 1859 her maiden name being Berkefeld. After a somewhat checkered career in her native province, where several prosecutions and imprisonments for illegal operations and imposture had rendered it impossible for her to carry on her calling of midwife, she moved to Hamburg, renting an expensive residence in one of the fashionable thoroughfares. Here she established herself as a professional foster mother.

Her method of procedure was to insert in both German and foreign papers prominent advertisements, in which the adoption of children born out of wedlock was promised in return for a single monetary payment. These notices brought her many clients from the fashionable, as well as from the humble, ranks of society. For instance, it is stated that for taking over a child whose parents belonged to the highest circles in the town of Hanover she received a fee of $1,000 in addition to $250 hush money. At the same time she inserted in the papers other advertisements to the effect that a "young and beautiful girl" appealed to noble-minded gentlemen for temporary pecuniary assistance, and forced her own illegitimate daughter, Paula, into improper relations with the men who replied to these thinly-veiled enticements. She visited London, and the names of persons said to be resident in the English metropolis were mentioned in the course of the trial just closed.

It was further alleged against her, though on this count she has been acquitted, that she attempted to poison her husband, who found her proceedings not to his liking. One of the children adopted by her is said to have been the child of an English woman of title. Of the children whom she was paid to take, those whose age made the proceeding profitable were corrupted. Others she poisoned with morphine, throwing their bodies into the Elbe, or burning them in her kitchen fireplace. The crime of infanticide was brought home to her in no fewer than five specific cases, and how far that number was from completing the gruesome tale of her iniquities there is no means of knowing. A dramatic feature of the trial was the appearance of the woman's husband and daughter as witnesses against her.

Miss Whittaker, a prominent club woman of Savannah, Ga., tells how she was entirely cured of ovarian troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a Uterine Tonic and Regulator. I suffered for four years with irregularities and Uterine troubles. No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss EASY WHITTAKER, 604 39th St., Savannah, Ga."

No physician in the world has had such a training or such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills as Mrs. Pinkham. In her office at Lynn, Mass., she is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own trouble who will not take the pains to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free.

A letter from another woman showing what was accomplished in her case by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I am so grateful to you for the help Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me that I deem it but a small return to write you an expression of my experience.

"Many years suffering with weakness, inflammation, and a broken down system, made me more anxious to die than live, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound soon restored my lost strength. Taking the medicine only two weeks produced a radical change, and two months restored me to perfect health. I am now a changed woman, and my friends wonder at the change, it is so marvellous. Sincerely yours, Miss MATTIE HENRY, 429 Green St., Danville, Va."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women prove beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.
